FMCG Division (Detergent Manufacturing Unit)

Renowned for our commitment to quality and professionalism, we have entered the homeware industry with a state-of-the-art Detergent and Dish Wash Bar manufacturing facility, delivering a portfolio of high-performance cleaning solutions. Our flagship brand, Kite Glow, launched in March 2025, has rapidly gained market recognition for its exceptional cleaning power, fabric care, and affordability, setting the standard for excellence in the detergent industry.

Complementing Kite Glow, BURQ Action caters to our mid-tier market segment. Produced with advanced technology, our detergent powders ensure minimal variation, superior stain removal, and long-lasting freshness at competitive prices. Each brand is crafted to meet the demands of households and businesses alike, providing reliable solutions for everyday cleaning challenges.

Kite Dish Wash Bar has rapidly achieved good market growth due to its premium fragrance, advanced cleaning formulation, and slow water dissolution. That not only matches but beats the market leaders in this category while maintaining competitive pricing.
